The Government of Andhra Pradesh had also reported to have decided to implement Integrated Low Cost Sanitation Scheme (ILCS) for construction of individual toilets for urban poor families in all urban towns in the State. The Housing & Urban Development Corporation (HUDCO) has informed that under the Centrally sponsored Integrated Low Cost Sanitation Scheme which is being implemented by this Ministry through HUDCO, schemes have been sanctioned in 110 towns of Andhra Pradesh involving HUDCO loan of Rs.14598.32 lakhs and Government of India subsidy of Rs.7330.76 lakhs. List of these 110 towns is at Annexure-I.

Proposal to include 34 towns of Andhra Pradesh under Integrated Low Cost Sanitation Scheme was sent by the Govt.of Andhra Pradesh out of which 24 towns were approved by this Ministry. List of these 24 towns is at Annexure-II.A decision has been taken by this Ministry to sanction Integrated Low Cost Sanitation scheme in the remaining 10 towns in which schemes were previously sanctioned by Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment. To implement this decision, comments of the Ministry of Social Justice & Empowerment have been sought to settle the issue of refund of subsidy released by that Ministry to the Government of Andhra Pradesh under the previously sanctioned schemes for these 10 towns.
